FINCA EL ENCINAL ROBLE

Region: Ribera del Duero DO

Varietal: Red

Winemaker: Ruben Provedo

Grape Varieties: 100% Tinta Fina (Tempranillo)

Aging: Aged 3 months in French and American oak.

Tasting Notes: The wine ages for five months in American oak casks obtaining a polished finish with a good balance between the presence of fruit and wood. It has a cherry color with noticeable hints of wild berries and red fruits and a base aroma of oak. This full-bodied wine is smooth and persistent.

This wine is an excellent choice to pair with chorizo sausage, pork dishes and grilled red meat.

Reviews: Wine & Spirits: 92 Pts | 100 Best Buys of 2018

Youthful and light, emphasizing fruity and refreshing flavors, subtler than most Riberas. This vintage is juicy, with spicy touches and lots of red fruit, even as the finish lasts with the depth of flavor of a more complex wine.

Bodegas Valparaíso, located in Quintana del Pidio (Burgos) is also known as Ribera's Garden, situated on a mound overlooking the town and its old buildings. Bodegas Valparaíso began on the 28th October 2000 its journey in Ribera del Duero, one of the most attractive and thriving appellations in Spain. It boasts 70 Hectares of privately owned vineyard planted mostly with Tempranillo vines, also known locally as Tinta Fina or Tinta del País. The oldest vines were planted early in the 20th Century on bush vines, and the younger ones early in the 21st Century on trellis lines.
