AN ATMOSPHERE OF GREATNESS

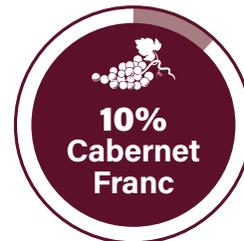

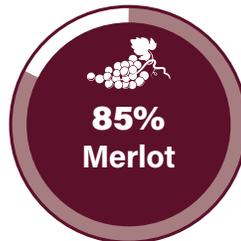

Located in Sainte-Colombe, Château Cap de Faugères is worked by the same passionate team as Château Faugères, the flagship estate of Vignobles Silvio Denz. With vines planted on clay & limestone, the estate's wine benefits from a world-class cellar designed by architects Jean de Gastines and Patrick Dillon. Each vintage expresses its terroir, offering wines for immediate enjoyment, perfect for sharing joyful moments with family & friends.

APPELLATION: Castillon-Côtes de Bordeaux

VINEYARD AREA: 18 hectares

SOIL: Clay and Calcareous Slope

GRAPE VARIETIES:

AGING: 12 Months

TASTING NOTES:

A fresh and fruity nose, with elegant red fruits notes. On the palate, Merlot freshness & well-integrated tannins result in a wine meant to be enjoyed in its youth.

REVIEW: 92 points, Vinous

CASTILLON-CÔTES DE BORDEAUX

SILVIO DENZ, OWNER OF CAP DE FAUGERES

In 2005, Silvio Denz, the owner of Vignobles Silvio Denz and the Chairman of the Board for Lalique Group, purchased Château Cap de Faugères along with several other benchmark estates throughout Bordeaux. A longtime collector of art & wine, Sylvio has breathed new life into each of these properties.

Silvio's various roles in the world of luxury, from Michelin Star restaurants to 5-star lodging accommodations, give him the unique perspective on what it means to combine knowledge & craftsmanship that is captured in each bottle of Cap de Faugères.
